President of the Gloucester County Historical Society Woodbury, N. J.

The following pages were printed in the Woodbury Daily Times from June 19 to July 31, 1918.

For the benefit of those who live at a great distance, I have had one hundred copies of this pamphlet struck off the newspaper type.

It is my intention to publish other manuscript data in my possession from time to time and for that reason this one is numbered No. 1.

muel Mickle's Account Books.

t was the custom of Samuel Mickle, rchant, of Woodbury, to make a morandum on his charge accounts, wing to whom he delivered the ds. Many of the charges mention names of his customers, wives, chiln, neighbors, apprentices, slaves,

In a great many instances the ds were delivered to the customer person. From the charges for windsheets we get the death dates, and erally the relationship.

n most cases the residences of his tomers are mentioned as in Woody, up Great Timber Creek, up Man-Creek, near Raccoon Creek, etc.

mong the mills mentioned are those Abraham Dilks, Benj. Clark, George rple, Jessup's, Jacob Frease's, Jonan Williams.

mong the places: Deep Hollow near odbury, Cole Landing up Great Timber Creek, Ladd's Cove, Cowhawking, Flyatem town, Glass House up Mantua Creek, Dutchtown, Sandtown, Barnsley, Death of ye Fox Tavern, School House near James Cooper.

Samuel Mickle was an accommodating merchant; he loaned money to his customers; changed their Continental currency, and often times when they could not pay, closed out the account without malice. In 1784 we find him selling a wandering Indian, but in this instance Samuel accepted a gun as security for his merchandise. From his accounts we glean the names of some of the workmen on the new court house and jail in Woodbury, i. e. Thos. Patton, Wm. Lawrence, John Brown and Hugh Bean. The last named was a plasterer and worked on the Court House in September, 1788, probably at the time of its completion. The others worked in the fall of 1787.

The relationship recorded in his day books are well worth saving for their genealogical data of importance. It is quite likely that in no other existing manuscript can some of this data be found.

From the first Ledger accounts intim Samuel Mickle, merchant of Woodbu hea we get the names, addresses and hisk cupations of many of the residents applications Gloucester County for the years 17 Hee, bac to 1789 inclusive. As a rule names are of those who lived in the town of Woodbury or up the Greplas Timber, Mantua, Raccoon and Newt | gar Creeks.

The original township of Deptfonars was first known as Deepford and quite likely got its name from the fauth that it was almost impossible to ent it from any direction except by cros ate ing a deep ford. Waterford township likewise, despite historians.

In October, 1788, when Mickle, thit merchant, opened his second ledge which is now lost, his stock and boom accounts amounted to the respectable sum of 1069 fb, 8s, 1 3-4 d.

Things Sold.

Moreeiris He sold cloth known as Russa Sheeting, Tamm Shalloon, Ozinbrigs, Tow linen, Fustian, Call manco, Tecklinburg as well as bucl ram, calico, mohair and muslin. H also sold large quantities of sugar, mil lasses and rum and other provisions glass, crockery, chemicals, hardward buttons, thread, tobacco and spice:

One of the surprises I found was at my great, great grandfather, Josoh Steward, of Burlington County, lived for a while near Woodbury, and his name and that of his son Nathan both appear in Mickle's books. The latter Oct. 19th, 1790, married Rachel Morgan in Old Swedes Church, Philadelphia, and moved to Salem County. Rachel Morgan was the daughter of Jonathan and Bathsheba (Cheesman) Morgan, of old Gloucester, married in Christ Church, Philadelphia, March 22, 1759. Bathsheba was the widow of John Cheeseman, of Gloucester County, who died in 1757. The tradition in the Steward family is that her maiden name was Williams.

Jonathan Morgan was the son of George Morgan, of Bucks County, Pa., who settled in Old Gloucester, and died here in 1759. The Morgans belonged to the Blackwood Presbyterian Church, and many of them are buried there, including Randle, another son of George. Jonathan joined Friends Meeting at Haddonfield in 1778. In 1784 his son Ionathan, Ir., also joined Haddonfield meeting and a few months later married Elizabeth, daughter of Jonathan Fisher. Jonathan Morgan, Sr., died in Salem County and was buried in the Pilesgrove Friends grave yard Woodstown.

Jonathan Morgan, Sr., had a son Isaac, but nothing is known of his descendants or those of his brother, Jonathan, Jr.

It is probable that John and Bathsheba Cheeseman had children because the name Bathsheba appears later in the Cheeseman family, as it does in the Morgan, Steward. Spears and Ward families. The Morgan family was a prolific one and seemingly very prosperous a hundred years and more ago. A little effort would result in a very creditable geneology of this family, which intermarried with the Chews, Blackwoods, North, Cheeseman, Fishers, Otto and other families of Old Gloucester.

There was another family of Morgans, descendants of Griffith Morgan. This one intermarried with the Coopers, Haines, Clements, Reeves, Satterthwaite Hinchman, Bennett, Eldridge and Hopkins families. It is quite hard to distinguish the lines in the last few generations.

Names and Addresses 1779 to 1789.

The few hundred ledger accounts for the first ten years of Mickle's store-keeping experiences represent, to a large degree accommodation accounts for small amounts, omitting charges to slaves and free negroes. The accounts covering a period when very little attention was paid to recording deeds, in some instances at least will give the residence of persons otherwise undeterminable, and possibly other clues. They appear somewlat alphabetically arranged, as follows:

Early Marriages in Old Gloucester Co. by Members of Newton Meeting.

The first marriage recorded was that of John Ladd to Sarah Wood in 1685, but that of James Atkinson to Hannah Newby in 1684 was recorded fifteen years later. It is therefore quite possible there were still earlier marriages, but if so they were necessarily few.

Hannah Newby, of Newton, at her home in Newton, to James Atkinson, of Philadelphia, 16, 9 mo., 1684.

John Ladd and Sarah Wood, 13, 10 mo., 1685, at meeting at Jn. Howtton's house.

William Hollingshed, son of John, of Burlington County, and Elizabeth Adams, Jr., daughter of John and Elizabeth Adams, at a public meeting at house of John Adams, 23rd of ye 1st mo., called March, 1692.

(Note—The Friends reckoning made their calendar 2 mos. and 25 days out. When it was changed in 1752, January 1st became March 25th, which accounts for moving day on that date in rural districts of New Jersey. In England March 25th is a settlement day among Friends at the present time.)

Note—This entry was made by Elizabeth Haddon and today, over two centuries afterward, she is known by her maiden name—a striking instance of personality. No other woman of New Jersey will live in tradition like Elizabeth Haddon. The Gloucester Co. Historical Society has her writing desk. For a period of over 50 years she was Clerk of the Women's Meeting of Haddonfield Friends and much of what is to follow was written by her on the above mentioned desk.

Certificates of Removal and Clearness, Etc.

When a member of Friends Meeting removed from the jurisdiction of one meeting to that of another it was customary to ask for a certificate of removal. When a member of one meeting desired to marry a member of another meeting a certificate of clearness to marry was asked for, but when a member married outside of the meeting by governor's license or otherwise, this was called going out in marriage and frequently resulted in disownment if proper acknowledgment were not made From a genealogical viewpoint the marriages out of Meeting, certificates of removal and certificates of clearness are quite valuable clues. Included in the certificates of removal and clearness are a few issued to traveling Friends.

Genealogy of Ann Whitall, Red Bank.

In her diary of 1762 she writes "It is with me to write of my grandfather. A worthy man he was, the only son of his father and mother. His name was Benjamin Clark, my mother's father, his wife was Anna. Benjamin and Ann Clark was his father and mother. He wrote much about the negroes and was much concerned about keep of slaves and often spoke of it to his friends, but few he found then of his mind. It is thirty years since he was much concerned about them, if not more."

"My father's name was John Cooper and mother's name was Ann. His father was William Cooper and Mary, his wife."

Marriages Performed by John Ladd in Old Gloucester County.

I recently came into possession of a number or original marriage licenses presumed to represent some of the marriages performed by John Ladd as a Justice of the Peace between the years 1731 and 1760.

John Ladd was a prominent Quaker and he had a hard time squaring his public duties with the rules of Friends Meeting. He not only performed marriages in accordance with the Governor's licenses but he took affidavits which were the subject of many negotiations between overseers of Friends Meeting and himself. He promised that he would not do more of the things contrary to Friends rules than was necessary under the law, and while considerable agitation was against him he was permitted to hold his birthright among Friends.

Owing to mishaps to the records of New Jersey as a Province and State due in a large measure to neglect that has been almost criminal in certain respects every little bit of data that can now be taved takes on oftentimes an aspect of considerable interest if not importance.

Among the list published herewith is the marriage license of Jeffry Clark to Mary Chew, widow. It was issued at Burlington, New Jersey, the 10th day of February, 1734. It, like all the others is addressed "To any Protestant Minister or Justice of the Peace," signed by William Cosby, or to be exact W. Cosby, and entered in the secretary's office by Archd. Home, D. Secy. This Jeffry Clark was the father of Thomas Clark, whose Journal was published in "Notes on Old Gloucester County." He is the ancestor of many of the prominent men and women of Gloucester County, not only of the present but the past. One of his grandsons founded Clarksboro. Until the license came to light it was impossible to identify his wife beyond the fact that her first name was known to be Mary. Inasmuch as she is known to have been a widow, it is quite probable that investigation will prove her to have been the widow of Nathaniel Chew, Sr., and probably not his first wife.

It is possible that the list may include other genealogical clues of importance.

Those Licenses bearing date 1731 and 32 are signed by Lewis Morris, Esq., President of His Majesty's Council.

Those bearing dates 1732 to 1735, are signed by William Cosby, Esq., Captain General, Governor, etc., and are dated Perth Amboy, N. J., Fort George, New York, or Burlington, N. J.

Gloucester County Abolition Society.

The New Jersey Society for promoting the Abolition of Slavery was organized at Burlington, February 27th, 1793, and on May 5th of the same year an enlarged Constitution was adopted—the members consisted of those who had joined under the Constitution first adopted February 27th.

All meetings of the Society were to be held at Burlington, and special meetings could be called when three county meetings of the State Society made application in writing. The annual meeting was held on the first Monday in September, and each county society was represented by three delegates chosen by it. Each local of county society was required to hold half-yearly meetings at a selected convenient place in the county; elect a chairman; a treasurer, clerk and an acting committee of seven members for the period of one year.

Joseph Bloomfield was president, and Robert Smith, Jr., secretary of the State Society.

On April 27th, 1793, a meeting was called in Woodbury Court House, to establish the Gloucester County Association for the Abolition of Slavery. This initial meeting was attended by Joseph Clement, Thos. Carpenter, Jacob Wood, Joseph Sloan, Joshua Howell, Job Kinsey, Samuel Mickle and Franklin Davenport, who adjourned to meet May 24th, 1793. On that date Franklin Davenport was appointed chairman;

Samuel Mickle, treasurer, and Joseph Whitall, clerk. Joseph Sloan, Thomas Carpenter, William White, Thomas Stokes, James Cooper, Paul Cooper and Thomas Heston were elected acting committeemen.

At the same meeting Thomas Redman, Joseph Clement and Franklin Davenport were elected representatives to the general or State meeting at Burlington.

The dues were one dollar per year, and James Wilkins, who was not a member, donated a dollar for a record book for the purpose of the meeting.

The next meeting was held on November 23rd, following at which time the rules of business procedure adopted at Burlington on February 9th, were read and agreed to by the Gloucester County Association.

At this meeting Benjamin Hopkins and William Allison were admitted to membership, and James Cooper made a report on a negro held in bondage by Isaac Burroughs, Junior, to the effect that a promise had been made to manumit the negro the following Christmas.

At the meeting held April 28th, 1794, James and Paul Cooper reported that the slave had been set at liberty, and given his freedom papers. John Reeve, who had belonged to the Cumberland County Society, had moved to Gloucester County and was admitted as a member in conformity with the State Society Constitution. He was placed on the 1794 Acting Committee in place of William White. With this exception the officers and committees remained as at the organization. At this meeting Michael Fisher and Othniel Alsop joined the Society.

October 27th 1794, John Tatum reported he had examined the accounts of the Treasurer, and that all moneys had been transmitted to William Coxer, Jr., General Treasurer of the State Society. James Sloan, Jr., joined the Society.

April 27th, 1795, it was reported that Isaac Mickle had deceased and that Jacob Wood, Caleb Atkinson and Othniel Alsop had removed out of Gloucester County, and that Marmaduke Burr had removed from Burlington county tc Gloucester county, and was admitted to membership as was Joseph Sloan, Ir., a new member. At this meeting extracts from the will of John Hugg, dated 20th of ninth month, 1706. about divers black people was read, and the acting committee was recommended to procure all the information possible about the descendants of said black people, and to report to the representatives to Burlington in that the matter be laid before the General meeting at that place.

Thomas Redman was paid five pounds four shillings for expenses for the support of black Betty, who was under the care of her neighbors.

Twentieth of tenth month, 1795, Phineas Lord was admitted as a member and Benjamin Rulon was transferred from the Cumberland to the Gloucester County Society. It was decided to school or educate the black people at the expense of the Society.

In accordance with the recommendations of the General Convention held at Philadelphia a committee was appointed to collect an exact account of the persons liberated by the agency of the Society; those who had received relief, and a statement of the number of free blacks in the County, their property, employment, etc.

James Cooper brought forward the case of black Dinah, Hester and Hannah granddaughters of Ellen, who was liberated by the will of John Mickle, dated September 27th, 1741, and thought to be unlawfully detained in bondage, one of them in the County of Salem and the other in the City of Philadelphia. The acting committee was recommended to speedily take up their cases with the Acting Committee of said places.

No report was made regarding the descendants of black Candice, freed by John Hugg because of the absence of so many of the acting committee, but Franklin Davenport was instructed to take up the matter with the brethren at Burlington and if the judgment be that it would stand in law to take the case before the Supreme Court immediately.

Aaron H. Middleton and Benjamin Rulon were appointed to audit the treasurer's accounts.

April 25, '96, Black Hannah held by James Miller, of Gloucester County, and Black Dinah and Hester were continued under the supervision of the committee.

Thos. Middleton Potter and Benjamin Rulon were appointed to collect delinquent dues.

It was recommended to the repesentatives to the General Meeting at Burlington to work for the repeal of the law which inflicted a penalty of five pounds upon any person who might employ or harbor black people coming from another state.

Biddle Reeves was elected a member. Thos. Stokes, Thos. M. Potter, John Gill, Jr., Joseph Clement, James Cooper, Benjamin Rulon and Wm. White were appointed for the acting committee for the ensuing year, and Franklin Davenport, Joseph Sloan and Paul Cooper were appointed representatives to attend the general meeting at Burlington. The chairman, treasurer and clerk were the same as before.

September 1st, 1796, it was reported that there were at least three hundred and fifty black persons in Gloucester County; forty-seven of them householders and daily laborers; twenty-seven freeholders, most of them are also daily laborers; two mechanics (shoemakers), twenty-nine slaves and the remainder free women, young men and children.

Many of the above are industrious, of orderly lives and reported a very useful part of the community in the several neighborhoods where they live.

October 31st, '96, Thos. Stokes produced a receipt for payment of one pound two shillings for the schooling of two black children of Charles Chester's.

The contract of Primos with his former master Joseph Bates, was investigated, likewise the case of Mary, who was sold by Thos. Ellis to a person near Baltimore. The case of Black Hannah continued under investigation.

It was ordered that the freedom certificate of Peter Morton, formerly belonging to William Eldridge, be recorded.

Samuel Clement, Jr., was appointed to take the place on the acting committee of Thos. M. Potter, who had removed to Trenton. Thos. Saunders was elected a member of the Society.

April 24th, 1797, Benjamin Rulon was chosen clerk in place of Joseph Whitall. Thos. Stokes, John Gill, Samuel Clement, Joseph Clement, James Cooper, Benjamin Rulon and Wm. White appointed members of the acting committee. Phineas Lord, Joseph Sloan and Joseph Clement representatives to the general meeting at Burlington.

October 30th, 1797, Thos. Stokes informed the Society that black Primos now has his freedom. It was reported that the freedom certificate of Peter Morton was recorded in the Clerk's office of Gloucester County under date of tenth month, 28th, 1797.

Thos. Stokes, Josiah Atkinson, John Blackwood, John Gill, Paul Cooper and William White were requested to call on members of the Society and collect dues in arrears, and ask more strict attention to the meetings of the Society.

April 30th, 1798, Thos. Stokes, of Waterford, Josiah Atkinson, of Newton, Paul Cooper, of Deptford, reported the collection of twenty-nine dollars, and that James Branson, Samuel Erwin, Edward Gibbs, Benjamin Grasebury, Benjamin Hopkins, Josiah Hopkins, Samuel Hugg, Turner Risdon and Samuel Webster, Sr., Benajah Andrews, David Chew and Jehu Lord had resigned.

Acting committee for year 1798 consisted of Marmaduke Burr, for Waterford; Josiah Atkinson, John Gill, Amos Cooper, Joseph Clement, James Cooper and William White.

Franklin Davenport, James Cooper and David Ward were appointed representatives to the General Meeting at Burlington.

The April 28th meeting adjourned to meet in the County Court House at Woodbury, 27th of eighth month, 1798.

At October 29th half-yearly meeting, Amos Cooper, reported for the Acting Committee that James Miller would not liberate Black Hannah unless compelled to do so by law. The chairman was instructed to bring Habeas Corpus proceedings returnable at the next or a succeeding court for Gloucester county. At the meeting twelve copies of the 1798 proceedings of the fifth convention of delegates assembled at Philadelphia were distributed among the members.

At the regular half-yearly meeting, April 29th, 1799, Franklin Davenport reported he had requested William Griffith to proceed against James Miller concerning the bondage of Black Hannah.

David Davis was admitted to membership and produced a statement of expenses for obtaining a favorable judgment for certain black children who had been claimed as slaves by Elisha Clark.

Benjamin Rulon and Amos Cooper reported the number of blacks in Gloucester County as follows: Freeholders 19, Householders, including freeholders and mechanics, 92; mechanics 6, laborers 116, free blacks 415, slaves 47; total 462.

Some of the aforesaid black people are of sober, orderly lives, and a number of those who are free possess considerable property.

October 28th, 1799 Amos Cooper, Clerk, reported that he had received of Joseph Bloomfield, president of the State Society, one book containing the Constitution of said Society, printed cases adjudged in the Supreme Court of this State; extracts of New Jersey laws and minutes of the several conventions of delegates from the Aboilition Societies in the several states convened in Philadelphia.

Paul Cooper requested that attention be given to several black people, late the property of John Sommers, of Gloucester County, and that extracts respecting them be taken from said Sommers' will.

Fifth month, 28th, 1800, regular meeting, it was reported that John Sommers only had one black woman and that he had manumitted her during his life time. The acting committee was requested to procure a copy of her manumission paper for the next meeting.

The Clerk was directed to transmit the names of the members of the Society to the State Meeting at Burlington ninth month next.

Officers elected were: Franklin Davenport, chairman; Samuel Mickle, treasurer; Amos Cooper, clerk.

Tenth month, 27th, 1800, James Miller was reported as having given black Hannah her liberty after having been served with a writ of Habeas Corpus.

Fifty printed certificates of membership with a handsome engraving thereon were received by the Clerk from the meeting at Burlington.

David Henry, a member of the Society, reoprted that Emanuel Murry, a free black man, of Gloucester county, formerly a slave to Joseph Collins, some years past purchased his wife Debby —— of Samuel Murrel, since deceased, with a considerable sum of money, and since then had discovered that his wife Debby was a free woman before he purchased her, and desired the assistance of the Society.

Tenth month, 26th, 1802, the clerk was ordered to transcribe the manumission of the black woman of John Sommers in the Society's minute book, and file the original among the papers of the Society, which was done as follows:

I, John Sommers, of the township of Egg Harbor, County of Gloucester and State of New Jersey, do hereby set free from bondage my negro woman named Jane, when she shall arrive at the age of twenty-seven years old and do hereby release unto the said negro woman Jane all my right and claim to her person and to any estate which she may acquire hereby declaring the said negro woman Jane together with all issue which she may have or shall have absolutely set free against myself and all persons claiming under me. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty-third day of the eighth month in the year of our Lord, one thousand, seven hundred ninety and nine, 1799.

JOHN SOMERS.

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of Peter Andrews, Daniel Leeds.

Thirty pamphlets were received containing the minutes of the seventh convention of delegates held at Philadelphia sixth month last.

James Saunders attended this meeting and was elected a member.

Fourth month, 26th, 1802 (October 25th, 1802), routine business.

The acting committee reported they had under their investigation the case of a black girl named Violet, which they supposed had been illegally disposed of by John North, of Philadelphia, to Thomas Doughty, of Egg Harbor.

Biddle Reeves, Samuel Clement and Amos Cooper attended the annual State meeting at Burlington, agreeably to appointment.

Fourth month, 25th, 1803, owing to the interest of the Abolition Society of Philadelphia, Black Violet was indentured until she arrives at the age of eighteen years to Thomas Doughty, by John North, of Philadelphia.

Samuel Mickle informed the meeting that he proposed to resign as treasurer. Franklin Davenport was again elected chairman; James Sauders, treasurer; Amos Cooper, Clerk.

October 31st, 1803, routine business.

April 30th, 1804, General Meeting at Burlington resolved to change the word County in the Constitution to that of District, so as to admit the formation of Societies which may be composed of members from two or more counties; also resolved to change the annual dues from one dollar to fifty cents. General Constitution was changed to permit districts to hold their meetings either half yearly or yearly. The date of holding the general meeting was changed to the last fourth day in the ninth month annually, to be held alternately at Burlington and Trenton, and that the next annual meeting he held at Friends' Meeting House in Trenton at 10 o'clock a. m.

Samuel Mickle was appointed to note said alterations in the constitution for the benefit of the Society.

It was agreed to hold one meeting annually instead of two as before on the last second day in the fourth month.

Marmaduke Burr, Isaac Mickle and Amos Cooper appointed representatives to general meeting at Trenton, ninth month next.

At this meeting James Cooper was appointed chairman in place of Franklin Davenport; James Saunders, treasurer, and John Tatum, Jr., clerk, in place of Amos Cooper, who asked to be released.

During the last two years many of the members failed to pay their dues and interest seemed to wane.

No annual meeting was recorded for 1807 or 1808; evidently none was held because at a special meeting held at the Court House ninth month; 8th, 1808, the lack of a meeting in April last (4th month) is mentioned. The special meeting adjourned to meet fourth month next, but it is not likely that any later regular meetings were held, and the Abolition Society of Old Gloucester probably quietly passed out of existence, although Samuel Mickle, in his diary, mentions a consultation between some of the members of the Society June 4th, 1812.

From May 24th, 1793, to April 30th, 1804, the meetings were held regularly every six months. After the latter date they were held yearly in accordance with the change in the Constitution.

At the yearly meetings of 1805 and 1806 routine business such as distributing pamphlets, etc., was transacted.

In the Clerk's book is written a list of names of members. It has no date and may not be a complete list of all of those who joined the Abolition Society of Gloucester. After some of the names notations such as "removed" and "deceased" are written.

While we are writing about the Abolition Society of Gloucester County it seems desirable to reprint a few facts about slavery in Old Gloucester from my book "Notes on Old Gloucester County," together with additional data found subsequently.

There is plenty of evidence to show that many of the slave owners were opposed to slavery.

In a dilapidated book in the basement vault of the Gloucester County Court House, at Woodbury, is a record of a few of the slaves who were freed.

According to this book it was somewhat of a formality to free a slave. The owner would appear with the slave before two of the overseers of the township and two of the Justices of the Peace, who would examine the slave for soundness of mind and body and age, to determine capacity for self support. The names of most of the slaves were fanciful or Biblical, such as Ishmael, Levi, Jeremiah, Aaron, Roger, Tab, Flora, Violet, Rintha, Phillis, Boston, Coffee, Tabby, etc., etc.

There were a few slaves in New Jersey at the outbreak of the Civil War, and it is not unlikely that some of them were owned in the confines of Old Gloucester.

The first record in the Manumission Book is John Gill, Sr., who freed a slave on Nov. 23, 1787.

Joseph Hugg, March 26, 1788.

Lize Smith, late Price, widow of Robert Friend Price, Esq., Blanche Price, Hannah Albert late Price and Mary Price, freed a slave on May 24, 1788.
